Retention Instructions:
As the OPR, Financial Services retains most records in this series for C + 7 years, except for Cheque Logbook (C + 2); Hourly Balance Sheets (C + 3); T4’s (C + 9); and Holiday Cards (permanent). Copies of these records are not normally retained by other offices, except for Hourly Payroll Timesheets, Canada Savings Bond Receipts, and Miscellaneous, which are retained for C + 1 years.
Appraisal Rationale:

With respect to the retention of financial records, British Columbia's Limitation Act, S. 3(5), states that debts are not collectible, and goods are not recoverable, after six years; S. 3(4) also provides for a general limitation period of six years. It is also standard practice for the OPR to retain financial records for between five and seven years after the year of their creation - see, for example, the British Columbia Government's Administrative Records Classification System [ARCS] (1989), and Records Retention: Law and Practice, by Anson-Cartwright, et. al. (Carswell, 1994). Other offices normally retain them only for shorter periods. For example, ARCS has other offices retain their copies of financial records for one year after their creation or acquisition.
